

Four KBC Sports Leadership Workshops Conducted

PSD, in collaboration with PRIA (Society for Participatory Research in Asia) and MFF (Martha Farrell Foundation), delivered the KBC Phase 2 Sports Leadership Workshop across 4 locations in Delhi (Najafgarh) and Uttar Pradesh (Cholapur, Chitrakoot and Banda).

The workshops were all held in January on the following dates: in Najafgarh from 6th to 8th, Cholapur from 16th to 18th, Chitrakoot from 20th to 22nd and Banda from 23rd to 25th. A total of 144 youth participated across the 4 locations, with equal number of girls and boys.

The workshops provided the youth with a practical understanding of the steps to conduct a game, including ensuring the participants taking away learning outcomes from the games. Moreover, they learnt the importance of communication, planning and organization while conducting these games as well as their roles and responsibilities as a trainer. The youth were also taken through many of the games practically, and provided games manuals as resources for the future.

Vishnu's Story – KBC Najafgarh, Delhi

Vishnu, who earlier used to be a gunda (local thug) and carried a handmade pistol along with him, joined the KBC program to make a change at a personal level.

Vishnu was hesitant at the start of the sports leadership workshop in interacting with the other youth. But his interest in the workshop made him display tremendous leadership skills, which he exemplified at the end by superbly leading a sports session for 20 youth.

PSD initiates KBC Phase 2 Sports Leadership Workshops

PSD has developed a Sports Leadership Workshop as part of Phase 2 of the Kadam Badhate Chalo (KBC) program being implemented in partnership with PRIA and MFF. The workshop is designed to help the youth demonstrate leadership within their own communities, by providing them the skills, knowledge and confidence to become sports trainers.

The workshop will help the youth leaders to utilize sports to mobilize community members and other youth to become a part of the KBC movement, as well as raise awareness on the issues of gender based violence.
