Creating Community Champions – Afsar from KBC Cholapur, Uttar Pradesh

Afsar is a sports loving person. She likes to play hockey and badminton the most. When she came to know about the KBC sports leadership workshop being held in Cholapur, she became excited to attend the workshop.

Afsar's energy and enthusiasm during the workshop was remarkable. She learnt how sports can be used to bring together young people of different genders, and help them in understanding issues of gender and equality. Afsar believes that in order to become a leader in her community, she will have to face a lot of challenges to make the youth and their families realize the importance of having equal rights for boys and girls. But, her leadership traits, utmost confidence and outgoing nature make her a very strong contender to drive change within her community.

PSD Conducts 3rd Round Workshops for RDT Coaches

PSD has conducted the 3rd round of training workshops for another two batches of Rural Development Trust's (RDT) Anantapur Sports Academy (ASA) coaches from the 3rd to 7th of February, 2017.

The workshops were conducted to a total of 23 Grassroot coaches, from the sporting disciplines of Football and Hockey. The workshops focused on effective communication in coaching, in particular the topics of coaching styles, feedback mechanisms and solution-based coaching as well as planning and organization, with a focus on session planning.
